FiiiaUsation of suggestions on electoral reforms

1386. SHRI J. P. GOYAL: Will the Minister of LAW AND JUSTICE be pleased to state:

(a) whether the various suggestions for electoral reforms made by the Election Commission and other organisations in the past have been finalised by Government;

(b) if so, what are the salient features thereof;

(c) by when Bill is proposed to be introduced in Parliament with regard thereto; and

(d) if the reply to part (a) above be in the negative, what are the reasons for delay and by when [a] decision is likely to be taken by Government in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LAW AND IUSTICE (SHRI H. R. BHARDWAJ); (a) to (d)
The various suggestions made by the Election Commission for electoral reforms are still under consideration. The Government propose to hold consultations with political parties before arriving at a final decision in regard to these proposals. It is, however, not feasible to indicate the time frame for completing such consultations and bringing up the consequent legislation that may be necessary.
